"The County Parson" is Headliner at the Bijou

Two Act Biograph Drama,
"The Worth of a Woman," is Also Shown.

"The County Parson," a three-act Klaw and Erlanger photoplay, is the headliner today at the Bijou. It is based on Balzac's great drama of the futility of crime. Miss Louise Vale gives a sympathetic performance of a girl whose love affair ends in tragedy. "The Worth of a Woman," a two-act Biograph drama with Miss Vera Sisson in the leads, is the second big picture. The cast includes the pick of this celebrated company and a finished picture is offered. A nice comedy and a Herast-Selig News reel are shown.

The big offering for Thursday will be the V. L. S. E. blue ribbon Vitag-raph, "The Wheels of Justice," which comes to the Bijou direct from New York.

The action of the story revolves around Ralph Brooks, a young scotty man, who becomes infatuated with Rita Reynolds, a beautiful and unscrupulous adventuress.

"The Wheels of Justice" was produced with a strong Vitagraph cast, including James Morrison as Ralph Brooks, Dorothy Kelly as Julia Dean, Randolph in the role of Tug Riley, and Eulalie Jensen as Rita, the ad-venturess. In the principal characters, assisted by Louise Beaudet, Charles Eldridge and George Cooper.

Elsie Janis is going to write a serial motion picture play, with scenes told in Jamestown in colonial days, thence proceeding through various periods of American history down to the present. She will act in it herself.

What makes you go to the theater?
Because you want relaxation, isn't it?
You get more relaxation from laughter than you do from tears, don't you? Isn't it a fact, then, that you prefer plays that are all laughter? Ninety-five per cent of the ninety-five million people in America will answer "Yes" to this question.

Well, then, here's a big tip. See "It Pays to Advertise," Friday night at the Robinson Grand stage.

her in a five act photodrama entitled "Kilmeny," an artistic romance of a child of nature. The cast includes such established artists as Herbert Standing, Myrtle Stedman and sweet little Baby Baker, who is said to be the most remarkable child actress ever presented on a screen. The added attraction today is the popular Paramount travelogue.

Thursday, Clarksburg's favorite stage production, "York State Folks" pictured in five acts, will be presented with the original cast headed by James Lackaye and Ray L. Royce.

Vaudeville wants George Behan

he owns sixty per cent, has cleared

Prevent Diphtheria.

A sore throat is a good breeding place for Diphtheria germs. Protect your children by never neglecting a Sore Throat.
You can wisely depend upon TONSILINE.
Give Tonsiline upon the first appearance of Sore Throat—don't give Diphtheria a chance in that throat in its weakened condition. When TONSILINE is swallowed it comes directly in contact with the diseased surface and induces a healthy condition of the membranes—then the system can better defend the throat if attacked by Diphtheria germs.
Keep TONSILINE in the house where you can get it quick when needed. 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

In Order to Win a Duck Pin Contest from Ingram and Johnson of This City.

less studios with Maurice Tourneur.

Theatersgoers in this city will no doubt be pleased to know the attraction which opens at the Palace theater next Monday is the number one company of the great Lewis Oliver Players and is personally managed by Jack Lewis. It has an all star cast including Miss Edna Grandin, leading lady, and Jack Lewis, leading man. All new actors form the company with the exception of Fred Beaudin, who will be remembered as playing last season in this city. Two entire productions will be presented each week changing on Monday and Thursday with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. "The Blindness of Virtue" is underlined as the opening play.

Three hundred children, ranging in ages from five to ten years became motion picture actors when they appeared in a scene in "The Writing on the Wall," a feature picture being produced by Tefft Johnson for the Vitagraph Company.

"The Man of Shame," the Universal Broadway feature, starring the great actor, "Wilton Lackaye, who is supported by a superb Broadway cast, is offered today at the Orpheum theater. This masterful drama strikes the highest standard in film production. The Universal Company has done a few things as well and perhaps one or two better, but just now they cannot be recalled, and so far as its important principals are concerned, it passes the merely competent or pleasing, or worthy, stage early and becomes really exceptional.

Tomorrow, the beautiful star, Alice Brady, accompanied by a splendid cast of supporting stars will appear in the extraordinary screen production by "The Shuberts," "The Lure of Woman," in five acts.

For the Triangle film production of "Matrimony," Director Thomas Ince sent a man to New York City to study the homes of the socially prominent, with the result that two ear-loads of furniture were shipped from New York to the Inceville studio and used in the production. Costumes for the production of "Matrimony" were designed for Miss Dean and principals, by recognized authorities on gowns and smart street attire.

Backed up by an elaborate wardrobe, a clever cast and a chorus of eight pretty girls, Dave Newman's Musical Tabloid Company in "A Trip to Paris," is proving a whirl-wind success at the Palace theater.

This company is far ahead of the "tabs" that have appeared here in the past and one could not wish for a better low-priced attraction than the one now being given by this company.
The plot is nonsensical and there are funny make ups and jokes galore.
Bing Cushman, Larry Fein, Irving Scream and Carrie Hawley are responsible for the comedy. The chorus includes Anna Fawn, Vera Fein, Anna McMann, Cassie Hurley, Hazel Cushman, Brownie Marshall and Bell Riot.
The principal screen offering today is "The Crooked Path," a Kalem drama in three acts, played by an all-star cast. Vitagraph presents a one-act comedy drama entitled "Bixbie's Dilemma." The cast includes William Shea, Edwina Robbins and Marion Henry. Bixbie gets locked out in his nightgown and then gets locked in. He stirs up the whole town and finds himself in a worse predicament than before.

"Buck's Lady Friend" is the second of the Charles Van Loan "Buck Parvin in the Movies" series of Mustang releases on the Mutual program. The delightful fun of the author has been accurately and effectively transferred to the screen and the "lady friend" proves an irresistible provoker of mirth.

Realizing that if they played the game "square" they would lose, Mills and Elaw, of Fairmont, who were rolling a twenty-game duck pin contest with Clark Ingram and Lee Johnson of this city, "doctored" the alleys at Fairmont Tuesday night when the Clarksburg bowlers went there to roll the last ten games of a twenty-game contest and secured a margin of 208 pins overcoming the 126-pin lead the local bowlers had secured here last week and winning out by eighty-two pins.

In dressing a bowling alley a coat of shellack should be put on the entire alley, making a smooth, glassy surface on the entire alley. When this is done it makes the alley faster and harder to roll on at first, but a bowler soon gets accustomed to it and makes his usual scores, but the Fairmonters tried a new stunt Tuesday night. They covered the first ten feet of the alleys with shellack and failed to put any on the rest of the alleys.
This threw the local bowlers off their stride, while the Fairmonters had been practicing on the alleys dressed this way and it did not bother them.
Johnson and Ingram challenge Elaw and Mills to a twenty-game contest to be rolled on the Temple alleys at Fairmont and the Gore alleys in this city, or to be rolled on the Pastime alleys at Fairmont and the I. M. P. Amusement company's alleys here, providing the Pastime management have a competent man to shel-

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Lumberport, W. Va.,
October 15, 1915.

Whereas, our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom has called from among us our esteemed and much beloved Sir Knight who was in the bloom of manhood, and realizing His omnipotent power and wisdom and that He doeth all things well, we bow submissively to His will, and ever pray that the seeds sown by our worthy Sir Knight fall on fertile ground and that an abundant crop of souls follow his example, reaping a rich reward hereafter.

Whereas, Sir Knight Noley Forney joined our fraternal and benevolent order some time ago and was a true follower of its teachings and lent us his most earnest and benevolent aid in disseminating its principles.

Therefore, be it Resolved, First, that our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.
Second, That we, the Sir Knights bees, extend our sympathies to his widow in her sad bereavement.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved fam-minutes and a copy be sent to the county paper for publication.
